The Cell and Module project teams (M+W Zander) held a team building activity on March 6th at Labrador Park, Singapore. The event was hosted by Focus Adventure and featured a "treasure hunt" utilizing a navigation system. The group was broken into small teams and took part in this mini "amazing race" event.

dinner after the event*

After a long day in the sun bonding as a team, working to resolve the treasure hunt, everyone had sat down for some chilled drink and a huge dinner buffet. In summary, everyone had a good and fun time and the event surely promoted a good team building experience.
